

HEAD COACH

Beto Bianchi

Name: Roberto Luiz

Surname: Bianchi Pelliser

Date of Birth: 6/11/1966

Nationality: Spanish-Brazilian

He began his professional career at CF Ciudad de Murcia, where he won access to the third division of the Spanish league. He served as club coach for four seasons. During this period he also served as a scout for clubs Villarreal and Valencia.

For two seasons led the Club Atletico Ciudad where he obtained great results, leading the club to the Second Division B championship and winning the award for the longest unbeaten team in the 2007-2008 season, being unbeaten for 37 matches. Zamora & Lorca also headed the HR during a season.

In 2011 he moved to Indonesian football, where he was hired by Batavia Union FC, a club that competes for the Indonesian Premier League. His challenge is to create the structure of professional football club in the country.

In season 2012, he directed the Indonesian team Pro Duta FC and won Indonesian Premier Division promoted the team to Indonesia Premier League 2013. It is the main supporter of the work of development of football in Indonesia through working with youth teams & Indonesia U23, remains a candidate for the post of coach of the national team and coordinator of the youth teams.

In 2013 I went to Belgium, where I worked at the Montegnée Racing Football Club, then in the 2014/15 season I trained Shabab Al Ordon in the Jordan Premier League. He is currently the head coach of Atletico de Petróleos de Luanda in Angola, where he won the runner-up in the Angolan League in 2016, and also commanded the Angolan national team since March 2017 where the final of the CHAN was classified. Best Spanish coach out of Europe 2017 by Migrantes del Balon.

Style: His philosophy of the game is very attractive for the viewers. Ensuring a great defensive line and "attacking-passing game", very characteristic of the Spanish coaches. Provide a fresh and winning style for the team.

Mentality: Reinforce the capacity of the players with special emphasis. The motivation and knowledge of his game will make a competitive team.

Experience in important competitions like: African Cup of Nations (CAN) and African Nations Championship (CHAN) with Angola National Team, and CAF Total Confederation Cup. International Experience in leagues of 5 countries like: Spain, Indonesia, Belgium, Jordan and Angola.
